Four Generations, One Big Party

四代同堂的大派對

Taipei, May 10 - Mrs. Lin Mei-hua turned ninety years old on Sunday, and more than fifty relatives came to Daan Park to celebrate with her. Mrs. Lin was born in Tainan in 1936. She married her husband, Mr. Lin Wen-long, at the age of twenty, and they have four daughters and two sons.

Her youngest daughter, Ms. Lin Ya-ting, planned the party. "My mother is the heart of our family," she said. "Every Sunday, she still cooks dinner for all of us." Her grandson, Kevin Chen, a university student, made a short film about his grandmother's life. Many cousins who live in different cities watched it together and cried.

The best moment came at noon. Mrs. Lin's great-granddaughter, two-year-old Emma, gave her a big kiss and said, "Happy birthday, Grandma!" Mrs. Lin smiled and said, "I am a lucky woman. My family is my best gift." After lunch, the whole family took a photo with four generations in it.
