A Day of Delicious Meals

美味的一天

Last Saturday was my cousin Amy's birthday, so my family ate out all day. For breakfast, we went to a small shop near the MRT station. I had an egg sandwich and a bowl of hot soup. My dad ordered a pork bun and some rice. Amy only ate cereal with milk because she wanted to save room for lunch.

At noon, we had lunch at a noodle shop near the night market. Grandma loves dumplings, so we ordered thirty of them! I ate beef noodles, and my little brother had fried chicken and French fries. Mom said fast food is not healthy, but she still shared a hamburger with him.

Dinner was the best meal of the day. We went to a seafood restaurant by the river. There were shrimp, fish, and even a big steak for Dad. Amy got a cake with her name on it. I was so full that I did not need any snack before bed. What a tasty day!
