Shopping for Winter Clothes

採買冬衣

Sunday, December 3. Dear Diary, today Mom and I went shopping for winter clothes. My old sweater is too small now, and my jacket has a hole in it. The weather report says a cold front is coming on Tuesday, so we had to hurry.

The shop was crowded. First, I tried on a thick blue coat. It looked warm, but it was too long for me. Then Mom found a gray sweater and a pair of jeans. I liked them a lot. My sister bought a pink dress and a white blouse for her piano show. Dad does not care about clothes. He just wants a new pair of pajamas and some black pants for work.

On the way home, I saw a raincoat with cats on it. It was so cute! Mom said no because I already have one. At school, we wear a uniform every day, so new clothes are only for weekends. Still, I cannot wait to wear my new sweater. I hope Tuesday comes soon!
