Where Is the Gym?

體育館在哪裡？

It was Kevin's first day at his new junior high school. The campus was very big, and he did not know the way. He walked to the gate and asked the guard, "Excuse me, where is the gym?" The guard smiled and said, "Go past the library and turn left. It is next to the playground."

Kevin thanked him and walked along the road. He saw a classroom with many students inside. A girl came out and said, "Are you new here? I'm Amy. My class is 7-3." Kevin said, "Me too! Can you show me the gym?" Amy laughed, "Of course. We are in the same class."

After the PE class, Amy asked, "Where do you live?" Kevin wrote his address on a piece of paper: No. 25, Zhongshan Street. "That's my street!" Amy said. "We can walk to school together." Kevin was happy. The big campus did not look so scary anymore.
