My First Ride to School

我第一次騎車上學

Tuesday, May 5, Rainy. Dear Diary, today I rode my bicycle to school for the first time. My father usually drives me, but his car was at the repair shop. I was worried because I am a slow rider, and the roads were wet after the rain.

I left home at seven. First, I had to cross a busy street. Then I turned left at the park and rode along the river. Some cars were driving very fast, so I stayed on the bike path. A quick little dog ran beside me for a minute. Above the river, a white bird flew low and landed on a boat. The boat sailed slowly under the bridge. It was a beautiful morning after all.

I arrived at school at seven forty. I was not late! My legs were tired, but I felt proud. My friend Tina said, "You were faster than the school bus today." Tomorrow I will ride again. Maybe I am not so slow.
