How to Make Scallion Pancakes at Home

在家做蔥油餅

Scallion pancakes are a popular snack in Taiwan's night markets. Do you want to make them at home? First, bring these things to the table: two cups of flour, one cup of hot water, some green onions, salt, and oil. Choose fresh green onions. Cut them into small pieces and put them in a bowl.

Next, mix the flour and the hot water in a big bowl. Use your hands to make a soft ball. Cover the bowl with a towel and let the dough rest for twenty minutes. Then roll the dough into a thin, round piece. Brush some oil on it, and drop the green onions and a little salt on top. Roll it up like a rope, and then roll it into a snail shape. Push it down and roll it flat one more time.

Finally, heat some oil in a pan. Fry the pancake for two minutes. Then lift it with a spatula and fry the other side. Shake the pan a little, so the pancake does not stick. When both sides are golden, take it out and cut it into pieces. Hand a piece to your family and watch their smiles. Making food is more fun than buying it!
